To read British Literature

Opening	Materials/Handouts	Time
It's important to know the world around us. Pick a story from the weebly (awilliams7.weebly.com) and research England. Your exit ticket (blog) will be a brief summary of what you have learned (in your own words and give credit to the website).	Internet and weebly	10 min

Work Period	Materials/Handouts	Time
Pick a story, that you have not read, from awilliams7.weebly.com. You will find the stories under Eng IV. Write a journal or answer questions from the selected stories. The guidelines are on the weebly for journal entries and the questions may be entered as a blog. You must create a summary of the story. You also need to show proof of the journal that you are writing or questions. These may be printed off or written and turned in the box.	Weebly and Internet	55 min

Closing	Materials/Handouts	Time
I hope you have learned a little more about Europe. Please, show me that you have written your blog (summary of country that the student researched) and I will mark you down. I will also need you to turn in a summary (in box) of where you ended your journal, story, or questions.	Blog proof (check off) Turn in written or printed proof	10 min

Homework	Collect at end of class	Teacher Notes/Comments
None	Check off blog and turn in summary (in box).	They must show proof of everything that they do on the day that the teacher is out. Failing to do so may result in a "0" on an assignment.
